

Peru and Bolivia: Backpacking and Trekking, 1999, Hilary Bradt, 1898323755, 9781898323754, Bradt Publications, 1999

The seventh edition of the book that launched Bradt Publications in 1974 has guided countless hikers through the Central Andes. The region is famous for its Inca roads, ruins and snow-covered mountains, but many trails lead the hiker down into the tropical eastern foothills with orchards of orange and lemon trees. Written for independent backpackers and those going on an organized trek, with hikes for all levels of experience, this guide has been the bible for a generation of backpackers in South America. Essential information on Lima, La Paz and key towns near trekking regions are included as well as equipment and health advice. Revised by South American resident Jane Letham and broadcaster John Pilkington, this is the most up-to-date guide available to walking in the Central Andes.
